- Items from the canceled ladies retreat that could not be returned are being stored in the St. Annes closet
- The Yard Sale will be ran by Trisha Banet on May 27. St. Annes will be in charge of advertising in newspaper and making road signage
- Committee voted to use all of the proceeds to go towards Faith Formation to bring down the costs for families and the church; if Faith Formation wants to use it.
- Palm Sunday breakfast is set for April 9th. Ladies listed items they will be bringing, casseroles will be asked to be donated by the parish.
- Linda Bently from Ladies Day Out has donated 4 white round large table cloths for our use. We will have a thank you card for her next month.
- The Quilting Bee donated material for the retreat table runners. Thank you card will be sent.

Holy Name Society: By Ron Naville

- Survey stakes are in place for the cemetery service road. Waiting on Archdiocese for approval.
- Lenten Breakfast on March 11 had 86 attendees and raised about $658, being donated to Floyd Central Fellowship of Christian Athletes.
- Griddle really helped with the breakfast, may look into getting one for our parish hall.
- Fish Fry on Good Friday April 14 from 4pm – 7pm.
- Unbound: Received three letters from our sponsor child. Ronnie will write a response.

Finance: from March 28th

- Mr. Primavera had recently been on the cemetery site to process the survey and legal description required by the Archdiocese office. Timeline was not defined for completion, the hope is the land transfers will be completed by late summer. When everything is final, Dan Christiani Company will install an access road into the cemetery.
- Proposed 2017/2018 GL accounts were reviewed by comparing historical line item actuals with commentary recently secured from Ministry heads. A majority of the GL amounts were approved as proposed with others being unanimously altered by the council.
- Jamie motion the 2017/2018 church budget to be approved as the Finance Council has set. 2nd by Donna – unanimously approved.
